1.1 Purpose

1.1.1 The Company and To-Increase have agreed to initiate business discussions and a collaboration that will require To-Increase to disclose information to the Company that shall be considered and treated as confidential.

1.2 Definition of Confidential Information

1.2.1 “Confidential Information” means any and all information provided by To-Increase or any of its affiliates to the Company relating to To-Increase or in relation to To-Increases business, hereunder but not limited to its financial and strategic matters, its market situation, products, technical set up, employees, customers etc. Confidential information shall include, without limitation, information in tangible or intangible form, both verbally transmitted or in writing, in relation thereto, hereunder for example but not limited to contracts, emails, documents, information discussed during meetings or phone calls etc.

1.3 Obligations regarding Confidential Information

1.3.1 The Company shall:

- (i) Keep Confidential Information strictly confidential and not disclose any Confidential Information that the Company has received or will receive due to the Project, to any third party;
- (ii) Take all reasonable security precautions to protect Confidential Information from unauthorised access. Such security precautions shall as a minimum be in line with the Company’s security precautions for its own information or data.
- (iii) Refrain from reverse engineering, decompiling or disassembling software code disclosed by To-Increase;
- (iv) Use Confidential Information solely for evaluation of the Project and not for any other purposes;
- (v) Upon To-Increases request return all originals, copies, reproductions and summaries of Confidential Information and declare in writing that all such information has been fully deleted without possibilities for recreation of the information.

1.3.2 Confidential information does not include information that:

- a. is known or which will become known in full detail to the public other than by breach of the obligations herein contained; or

b. the Parties agree in writing that it is not confidential.

1.3.3 The Company may disclose Confidential information only:

- a. to such officers and employees of its Group as are necessary during the Project; or
- b. to professional advisers or consultants engaged to advise To-Increase in connection with the Project; or
- c. if required by any order of any court of competent jurisdiction or any competent judicial, governmental or regulatory body; or
- d. if required by laws or regulations of any country with jurisdiction over the affairs of any company within the Company's group.

No disclosure may be made under c) and d) above prior to consultation with the Company and taking into account its reasonable requirements as to its timing and content and as to the manner of the disclosure.

1.3.4 The company shall ensure that the employees, auditors, consultants, directors and shareholder representatives to whom Confidential Information is disclosed uphold confidentiality as set out in section 1.3.

1.3.5 Any disclosure contrary to the specifications in this NDA shall only be allowed if To-Increase has approved such disclosure of Confidential Information in writing.

1.4 Ownership, intellectual property rights

1.4.1 All Confidential information is and shall remain the property of Columbus. By disclosing Confidential Information to the Company, To-Increase does not grant any express or implied right to the Company to patents, copyrights, trademarks, intellectual property rights to software, trade secrets etc. except as otherwise provided herein.

1.5 Remedies

1.5.1 In the event of the Company' violation of its obligations stated in this NDA To-Increase shall immediately be entitled to receive a penalty from the Company of 50.000 EURO per violation. In the event that a violation continues to occur each 14-day period where the violation continues shall be regarded as a separate and individual violation. If To-Increases actual loss exceeds the penalty amount(s) To-Increase shall be entitled to claim damages for such exceeding loss and pursue any other available remedies under applicable law.

1.6 Period of effect

1.6.1 The obligations stated in this NDA shall remain in effect for a period of five (5) years or until completion of the Project whichever occurs first.

1.7 Miscellaneous

1.7.1 No amendment to this NDA shall be effective unless made in writing and duly signed by both Parties.

1.7.2 If any provision of this NDA is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable that shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provisions of this Agreement.

1.8 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

1.8.1 This NDA and all matters arising out of or relating thereto shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Kingdom of the Netherlands. In the event of any disputes the parties shall try to loyally settle the issues by negotiation intercompany wise, or – if necessary - via mediation. If a party deems a negotiation or mediation process impossible either party shall be entitled to demand that the dispute shall be settled by arbitration in the Netherlands in accordance with the “Rules of Procedure of the Netherlands Arbitration Institute (Amsterdam Arbitration)” with one Arbitrator as appointed by the Netherlands Arbitration Institute (Stichting Nederlands Arbitrage Instituut).

1.9 Signature
